CCSD Standardized Testing and School Activity Withdrawal Form

Alaska Statute 14.03.016 recognizes the authority of parents and allows parents to withdraw their child(ren) from a standards based assessment or test required by the state and withdraw the child(ren) from a school activity, class, or program. CCSD offers the following assessments:

PEAKS: Measures student's understanding of the Alaska English Language Arts & Mathematics standards adopted in 2012. *Science testing for grades 5th, 8th, and 10th. It is administered Online in the spring at each of our schools.

MAP: Tracks student progress throughout the year; it is administered Online, three times per year, and can be done at any of our schools: Craig Elementary, Craig Middle, or Craig High School, and at home for PACE students.

DIBELS: A literacy screener done by school staff one-on-one with your student, three times per year, and usually takes about 5 to 10 minutes.

If you do not want your child(ren) to participate in these assessments, please complete the following form with your signature.
